

Nobody Knows Who We Are (Dreams are where we start) rev 9 oct 2019 Max Warner CAPO 2

Riff – Over Am7 d e c d g Over Em7 g e e repeat 2 times
 Over Am7 d e c d g Over Fmaj7 g g a e e
 Over Am7 d e c d g Over Ab aug e e e e e

Am7 Fmaj7
Cigarettes are burning; I feel like an astronaut;
Am7 Fmaj7
In my long sleeved silver shirt, feel like an astronaut;
F/g Fmaj 7
But then some things do not appear quite as they really are;
F/g G
Hope I don't start fading here, I've not gone too far.

Am7 Fmaj7
I think it helps to be challenged, I think it helps to try;
Am7 Fmaj7
To understand each other and myself before we wave bye bye;
F/g Fmaj 7
So this is civilisation, this is something new;
F/g G
Quite a few clues out there, but no idea what I'm going do

Am7
Please could you explain, I'm puzzled here;
Em7
If we don't watch out could we just disappear
Am7
There's a gravity, that I'd like to beat,
Em7
Inner world, in a space that sometimes looks neat;
Am7 Fmaj7
And did I hear you say I could slip away if it all gets too much.
Am7 Ab+
To a place where nobody knows who we are
(Dreams are where we start.)

Able and Miss Baker, should be way up in a tree;
Fooling around and eating fruit, and it ought to be free;
Welcome to civilisation, this is something new;
Going to send you up into orbit, we don't know what else to do.

Chorus

Am7 Fmaj7 Am7 Fmaj7
F/g Fmaj7
Is this civilisation, is this something new?
Horizons are changing, fading out of view.

Chorus
