I'm on a hot train, I close my eyes; It's taking time, It takes so long
In a new place, Don't know the ways; On the outside, Nobody calls...

Chorus: C Am11 G
(Here), In the morning no one calls my name
I'm in the shadow standing on your train
In the twilight I wander through these london planes
And I wake up in the silence, calling your name

And the difficulty lies,
In not knowing, The signs that are used
To disguise, My feelings
Have I forgotten, Or did I ever really know

Chorus: C Am11 G
(Here), In the morning no one calls my name
I'm in the shadow standing on your train
In the twilight I wander through these london planes
But I wake up in the silence, calling your name

And sometimes I wonder, Sometimes I wonder,

Sometimes I wonder; Have I made the right move
I was in safe hands, So comfortable
Now I'm on this hot train, Reflecting .....
Once I was somewhere, Someone else

Chorus: C Am11 G
(Here), In the morning no one calls my name
I'm in the shadow standing on your train
In the twilight I wander these lonely planes
And I still wake up in the silence, calling your name

I'm on a hot train
